

10,000

Number of Couture Pops produced by Sugar Factory and the more than 30 employees placed there by Opportunity Village, an organization that provides services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Sugar Factory American Brasserie just opened at Paris.

When MTV and Las Vegas join forces, you never know what can happen. One of MTV's most famous (or infamous?) broadcasts, Spring Break, has never actually filmed in Vegas—until now. Usually held in exotic locales, MTV's wet and wild festivities tape from March 6–10 at Palms Pool & Bungalows. Plenty of celebs are expected, such as DJ Pauly D, Lupe Fiasco, Wiz Khalifa and Pitbull, plus a stage set up for concerts. Everything will be broadcast on MTV during spring break week, so get ready for college kids, bikini bodies and fun in the sun.

Ready for some entertainment? No matter where you are on Las Vegas Boulevard, you'll find a Tix4Tonight booth located close by, including at Town Square Las Vegas, Hawaiian Marketplace, Showcase Mall, Fashion Show, Bill's Gamblin' Hall, Casino Royale, Circus Circus, Four Queens and Slots-A-Fun. Not only are the booths convenient, but most tickets are for sale at half price! Discounts are also offered for dinners and for shows that often sell out. Call 702.212.4696 for more information.

❖ FIVESURE BETS

Mini Kobe burgers at Social House ❖ Lady Gaga impersonator in American Superstars ❖ Arianny Celeste appearing at Chateau nightclub, March 8 ❖ Cheese and wine tastings at Morels inside The Palazzo ❖ Signature Hourglass treatments at Qua Baths & Spa inside Caesars Palace